Strickland Gillilan, Washington, D. C., lecturer and humorist, will address the Kankakee Forum meeting Monday night in Kankakee. He is a high school auditorium. He is said to possess unusual skill in translating his fellowmen laughingly and gently and in showing the unnecessary of human stupidity.

Jap Proposal Is Rejected By The French

Indo-China And Thailand
Armistice Expires In Less Than 72 Hours

By RALPH E. HEINZEN
Vichy, Feb. 22.—(UP)—France, it was reported today, has rejected a Japanese "compromise" proposal for settlement of the Indo-China-Thailand conflict and fears rise that the French stand may increase far eastern tension.

The Japanese-sponsored armistice between Indo-China and Thailand expires in less than 72 hours and it was feared here that fresh border hostilities may break out.

Adding to Vichy's concern over the situation were reports that 30 Japanese warships have been sighted in the Gulf of Siam and that other Japanese naval concentrations may be in that vicinity.

The Japanese "compromise" was said to have been rejected because it would have given to Thailand considerably more Indo-Chinese territory than Thailand ever has asked of France.

The compromise plan provided for cession of about one-third of Laos province, a quarter of Cambodia including the province of Battambang as far as Angkor, Siemreap and Lake Tonleap.

The proposal, it was learned, was placed before the ministerial council yesterday and judged wholly unacceptable. The council determined to refuse the Japanese suggestions and a cablegram advising Japan and Vichy was sent.

The Japanese plan was said to have been submitted to Vichy while Admiral Jean Francois Darlan was in Paris. It was accompanied by a demand for an immediate reply in view of the imminent expiration of the armistice.

The original Thailand demand, it was said, called only for two small strips of Laos province, both west of Bangkok and the Mekong river. The Japanese added to these strips a rich corner of northwest Cambodia.

Identified As The "Canadian Cruiser"

Germans Believe It Must Be Considered As Grave
Concern To The U. S.

BULLETIN
Ottawa, Feb. 22.—(Canadian Press)—Canadian naval headquarters reported today that "with-out information whatever" regarding Berlin claims that German naval forces had sunk the British merchant ship Canadian Cruiser in the Indian ocean and that she bore United States colors.

"It's the first report of such a sinking we have heard," a spokesman at naval headquarters said. "We are without any information whatever about it and, after all, the Germans have been known to put out misleading reports before to meet their own ends."

The Canadian Cruiser was built in 1921 at Halifax for Canadian National Steamships, which later sold her.

The ship is now owned by the Canadian Transp Shipping company of Montreal.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The German high command declared today its "naval forces" in the Indian ocean had sunk an armed Canadian merchant ship which was flying the United States flag and which had the Stars and Stripes painted on its hull.

The high command identified the vessel as a 7,178-ton craft named the Canadian Cruiser, owned by the Canadian Transp Shipping Company Ltd. The ship was out of Montreal.

German circles observed that the reported display of the American flag should be of grave concern to the United States government and indicated that if a ship flying an American flag is to be suspected of being actually British "a most unfortunate incident" might occur.

In London the British admiralty announced that a great triangular zone of the Mediterranean between Italy and Africa had been marked off as "dangerous" to shipping of all nations.

The admiralty's announcement noted that the Italian government had announced recently that a large area of the central Mediterranean was dangerous to shipping.

Increase Aerial Activity
The British reported increased aerial activity both on the defensive and offensive fronts. British fighters engaged a squadron of German planes over the Kent coast.

Honor Don Clawson
At Northwestern U.

Don Clawson, son of Mrs. F. H. Clawson of Sheldon, formerly of Kankakee, is among 20 men elected to Lynx, honorary fraternity for outstanding junior men at Northwestern university.

The initiates are chosen on the basis of leadership, participation in extra-curricular activities or scholarship. Selection was made by the out-going members of the organization.

The function of Lynx is to coordinate leadership for the purpose of eliminating campus problems.

Clawson has been outstanding in football, track and basketball. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma, social fraternity, and is a junior in the school of education.

Ask Survey Of Housing For Munitions Area

Plans are underway for a WPA survey to determine what housing, recreational, educational and other municipal improvements would be needed to accommodate munitions workers in the Kankakee-Joliet area.

Lieut. Col. T. C. Greber, commanding officer of the Kankakee and Elwood Ordnance Plants, has agreed to sponsor the survey, plans for which were outlined by Robert Edwards, director of research and records for the WPA in district No. 2, with headquarters in Rockford.

Col. Greber said that 50 or more clerks, statisticians and canvassers would be required to handle the project.

John Wilmington, Elwood and other Will county communities in the munitions area will be covered by the survey. With approximately 500 men employed last week, nearly 7,000 persons now are engaged in the construction of the Kankakee and Elwood plants. Huge quantities of materials and equipment are arriving daily.

U.C.T.A. Organizes
Council Tonight

United Commercial Travelers of America will institute a new council in Kankakee at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the K. of C. hall.

Forty local businessmen are charter members of unit No. 687 of this fraternal service organization and will be initiated by a degree team from Champaign-Urbana.

The grade and high school boards of education in Bradley still are looking for a superintendent to succeed Ruel Hall, new county superintendent.

Several days ago the boards decided to offer a contract to an applicant now serving as an out-of-town grade school superintendent.

This man, however, when he sought release from his contract by his board, was offered a raise and will remain in his present position.

4 Heirs Name 5 Sisters In Estate Suit

Claim Their Mother
Not Of Sound Mind
When Deed Given

Circuit Judge Luther B. Bratton on Monday will hear the arguments of attorneys in a suit among members of the Mervin family at Mokena. He heard the testimony yesterday.

The suit is brought by three sons and a daughter of the late Mrs. Anna Mervin against their five sisters and the husbands of three of them.

The plaintiffs, Frank George and John Mervin and Mrs. Anna Bukowski, ask the court to set aside a deed signed March 8, 1934 by their mother when she gave a parcel of personal property in Mokena to the five sisters, leaving out the three brothers and sister who are plaintiffs.

Sisters' Influence
Represented by Attorney Vernon G. Butz, the plaintiffs said that an attorney drew up the deed in that manner at the order of the five sisters and further allege that at that time Mrs. Mervin was in failing health not of sound mind and memory, was under the influence of the five sisters and did not know what she was doing.

The defendants, represented by Attorney Claude M. Granger, replied that Mrs. Mervin had good reasons for having the deed drawn as it was. They are:

Mrs. Stella Wilkin, Mrs. Josephine Martin and her husband W. E. Mrs. Helen Bukowski, Mrs. Mary Novack and her husband Enos, Mrs. Kathryn Hess and her husband Clinton.

3,000 Sign
Petition Here
Opposing Bill

Petitions protesting passage of the lease-lend "dictatorial" bill in congress, bearing the signatures of a total of more than 3,000 residents of Kankakee county have been sent to Washington by the local chapter of the America First committee.

There were 1,682 signers from Kankakee, 1,374 from the remainder of the county and several hundred by members of organized labor.

St. Anne, with 612 signers, leads in this area.

The organization is now seeking 2,000 signatures to a telegram to Senator Scott Lucas on Feb. 27 as follows:

"The undersigned citizens of Illinois, feeling that bill No. 1776 constitutes a dangerous departure from our democracy, that it is certain to involve us in an unpopular war, urge you to vote against it. If Russia 3,000 feet away remains non-belligerent, can not we, 3,000 miles away, do likewise?"

Fire Hose Catches
Fire--That's News

A fire hose was ruined by a rubbish fire which started on the fifth floor of the Arcade building last night.

Firemen were called at 8:10 p. m. They found a 50-foot length of the building's fire hose had caught fire from rubbish. Boys playing in the corridor were believed to have set the blaze. All members of the fire force were called in to stand by but the blaze was quickly extinguished.

His Jokes So Old

Injured Cop Given $3,600 Judgment

John E. Hassett, Bradley police officer, yesterday won a $3,600 judgment against the estate of Emory H. Skinner, late of Chicago.

This was the result of a suit, heard by Circuit Judge Luther B. Bratton, filed by the police officer against the estate as the result of an auto accident last Aug. 2 on highway 49 in Bradley.

Hassett was badly injured and only recently was able to leave St. Mary hospital. Skinner was fatally injured.

The estate of which Skinner's widow Edgel is administrator, allowed the case to go by default, and in the same manner the village of Bradley secured a $625 judgment against the estate for wrecking of the police car which Hassett was using at the time of the crash.

Hassett was represented by Attorney John H. Beckers and the village by Attorney Hilary S. Streeter.

Husband Is Given
Children's Custody
When Wife Deserts

Two divorces were granted by default yesterday by Circuit Judge Luther B. Bratton.

Mrs. Otis B. Rimas charged her husband, William T. with cruelty. In lieu of alimony she was awarded household goods and furnishings and allowed to resume her former name of Otis B. Coulombe.

The couple was married June 24, 1935 and lived together until last Dec. 26. There are no children.

Lester Calvin Pippin accused his wife Evelyn of desertion and was awarded the custody of children Edward 8, and Shirley, 5.

The marriage took place at Kentland on Sept. 16, 1930 and the separation on Jan. 15, 1940.

Entire Central Mediterranean Being Mined

Britain Hopes To Cut Off
Italy From All Sea
Communication

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
London, Feb. 22.—(UP)—The British navy is mining the entire central Mediterranean, the admiralty announced today.

The effect of the operation is to cut off Italy from all practicable sea communication with its North African colonies, prevent the escape by sea of the remnants of the Italian North African army and bar the sea to any German expedition seeking to attack French North Africa from Italian bases.

The admiralty announced that waters in the specified areas of the Mediterranean would be "dangerous" to shipping—the customary language employed to indicate mining operations.

Completion of the operation will cut off the central Mediterranean to any but British ships which may be piloted through the mine fields cutting the sea in two at its middle.

The operation includes mining of the channel between Sicily and French Tunisia.

Mining of the Tyrrhenian sea on Italy's west side between the island of Sardinia and the Italian mainland.

Mining of the belt across the Mediterranean from Cape Santa Maria de Leuca, at the heel of the Italian boot, to Benghazi, the new British army and navy base in Italian Libya.

Lester Calvin Pippin accused his wife Evelyn of desertion and was awarded the custody of children Edward 8, and Shirley, 5.

The marriage took place at Kentland on Sept. 16, 1930 and the separation on Jan. 15, 1940.

Would Give FDR Power To Plunge U. S. Into War

Denounced As Dictatorship Measure; Would Control U. S. Economy

Washington, Feb. 22.—(AP)—Senator McCarran (D-Nev) told the Senate today that if the administration's aid bill becomes law the draftees who go to the army next month will "go for good."

Arising after Senator White (R-Me) had read Washington's farewell address, McCarran called Washington's warning against foreign alliances "A rosary—a prayer for this country." He added that it ought to be heeded today lest this nation become involved in war and go "down into the holocaust of hell where others have been bleeding for centuries."

Speaking extemporaneously, McCarran said his purpose was to "awaken the country to the purport of legislation about to be enacted here—and when I say enacted into law, I say 'God forbid.'"

"Going Out To Die"
"This is an involvement in foreign entanglement which your first president denounced," McCarran said, his voice shaking with emotion. "If this bill is enacted into law it is war—war under the ignominious name of never having been approved by congress."

"If this bill is enacted, every boy who goes into the army from every state next month will go for good. He may think he's going for a year—that's the happy promise—but he is going out to die. These boys were not called simply to lend aid to England."

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) declared in a speech prepared for the sixth day of debate on the legislation that "we are asked to give one man the power to take us into war and by passing the bill in its present form we are, in effect, approving a war policy if he sees fit to declare it."

An assertion that "complete war-making powers" would be given to the President was made by Senator Capper (R-Kan). In his address, likewise prepared for senate delivery, Capper also said Mr. Roosevelt would have "complete control over our domestic economy" if the legislation was enacted.

Debate Delayed
The hour for starting debate was delayed somewhat by the senate's customary observance of George Washington's birthday anniversary. Senator White (R-Bain) was chosen.

Untamed Monsters Brought Face
To Face; Trainers Are Puzzled

Sarasota, Fla., Feb. 22.—P.—"The most stupendous, spine-chilling, super-natural spectacle of a pair of nature's most tremendous, terrible, untamed monsters brought face to face for the first time in captivity in this or any other country, ladies and gentlemen."

In other words, Gorilla Garantua met Gorilla Toto. She played coy and he started boasting. She barked at him and he promptly got what civilization calls the jitters.

This played no little havoc with that big bad reputation he's had with Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey circus and the public.

Toto was brought from Cuba by the circus, which hoped the two would become friendly enough to live in one cage. Yesterday the two cages were pushed to within 18 inches of each other and the two got their first looks at each other. That will be the procedure until officials decide the two definitely like—or dislike—one another. How long that might be no one would predict.

Marx Brothers Ride Range In New Laugh Hit

Groucho, Chico, Harpo In "Go West," Sunday At Paramount

As their answer to the desire of the public for an opportunity to laugh long and loudly in these times, the Marx brothers offer their most fun-fest, "Go West," which opens Sunday at the Paramount theater for an engagement of three days.

The kings of comedy spent nearly a year in developing their new story, which unfolds an uproarious farce, taking place in the Colorado gold country of 1870. It gives the Marxes their first "period picture," with costumes of an earlier era.

The comedy was tested for best laughs through 103 performances of the Marxes and a full cast before theater audiences, before being played before the cameras. This was done to assure perfection in comedy sequences and dialogue.

Supporting the stars is a stellar cast including John Carroll, Diana Lewis, Walter Woolf King and Robert Barrat. The production was directed by Edward Buzzell and was produced by Jack Cummings.

The plot is an exciting one about the mad antics of the Marx brothers in foiling a group of villains and sirens from stealing a valuable deed of land from the hero and heroine. While the plot is well rounded, everything is played for laughs, with many of the most hilarious scenes the Marx brothers have ever had. In addition there is plenty of music, with a piano solo by Chico, a harp number by Harpo, songs by Carroll, Miss Lewis and Groucho, and a "can-can" dance by a dozen lovely chorines.

For centuries laymen have been trying to fathom the methods by which the world famous revolutionaries of India and Persia have accomplished their magic. Numerous so-called explanations have been offered to clear up the mystery of the rope trick and the sword and basket trick. It has been claimed that they have accomplished everything from the use of magic to mass hypnotism but they still remain enigmas that cannot be duplicated except by the small number of initiates of the magician caste who pass on the knowledge from father to son.

A comedy melodrama interspersed with the personality and music of America's number one radio organization headed by Kay Kyser, "You'll Find Out" is heralded as a truly unique film.

Definitely combining fast-paced comedy, tender romance and sweet-sounding music, the RKO radio organization presents in supporting roles such notable players as Peter Lorre, Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Helen Parrish, Dennis O'Keefe and Alma Kruger, in addition to Kay Kyser's featured artists, Ginny Simms, Harry Babitt, Ish Kabibbe and Sally Mason.

Nanette (Anna Neagle) is showing uncle (Roland Young) some fancy steps. And don't think that uncle has two left feet, either. It's a screamingly funny scene from RKO Radio's new screen musical success, "No, No, Nanette." Included in the brilliant cast are Richard Carlson, Victor Mature, Helen Broderick, Zasu Pitts, Eve Arden, Tamara, Billy Gilbert and Stuart Robertson. It opens with a midnight show tonight at the Luna.
